NEW MINOR IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Recognizing the role of the United States in world affairs and the importance of international operations to American business enterprise, the College of Business Administration is offering a new minor in International Business beginning Fall 2007. This minor is designed to help prepare students for positions in global business operations, government, or international agencies in the fields of economic development and global trade. The requirements for this minor are as shown below:

COBA (Non-MGT Majors)	COBA (MGT Majors)	Non-COBA Majors
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• CIS 331 Global Supply Chain Management</li> <li>• FIN 331 Global Finance</li> <li>• MGT 460 Global Business</li> <li>• MKT 331 Global Marketing</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• CIS 331 Global Supply Chain Management</li> <li>• FIN 331 Global Finance</li> <li>• MGT 430 Internship in Business</li> <li>• MKT 331 Global Marketing</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• CIS 331 Global Supply Chain Management</li> <li>• FIN 331 Global Finance</li> <li>• MGT 460 Global Business</li> <li>• MKT 331 Global Marketing</li> <li>• MGT 430 Internship in Business</li> <li>• Foreign Language (FLS 161 Spanish 1 or FLF 141 French 1)</li> </ul>

COBA students using a catalog earlier than 2007-2009 will also need to complete a course in Foreign Language (FLS 161 Spanish 1 or FLF 141 French 1) through course substitution or otherwise.

Students minoring in International Business will be eligible to apply for the 14 scholarships that will fully fund a one-week study to South Korea.
